1. <<To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.>> Hear this, all [ye] people; give ear, all [ye] inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart [shall be] of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, [when] the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6. They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None [of them] can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul [is] precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

9 That he should still live for ever, [and] not see corruption.

10 For he seeth [that] wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought [is, that] their houses [shall continue] for ever, [and] their dwelling places to all generations; they call [their] lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man [being] in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts [that] perish.

13 This their way [is] their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings.

Selah.

<sup>14</sup> Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

<sup>15</sup> . But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

<sup>16</sup> Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

<sup>17</sup> For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

<sup>18</sup> Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and [men] will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

<sup>20</sup> Man [that is] in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts [that] perish.
